PART 2: CHOICE OF GOVERNING LAW; PLACE OF ADMINISTRATION

12. Governing Law

(1) The meaning and effect of the terms of a trust are:
   (a) determined by the law of the jurisdiction expressed by the terms of the trust as the governing law; failing that
   (b) to be implied from the terms of the trust; or failing either
   (c) to be determined by the law with which the trust at the time it was created had the closest connection.

(2) The references in Article 12 (1)(a) and (b) to “failing that” or “failing either” include references to cases:
   (a) where no law is expressed or implied under Article 12(1)(a) or (b); and
   (b) where a law is so expressed or implied, but that law does not provide for trusts or the category of trusts concerned.

(3) In ascertaining, for the purpose of Article 12(1)(c), the law with which a trust had the closest connection, reference shall be made in particular to:
   (a) the place of administration of the trust designated by the settlor;
   (b) the situs of the assets of the trust;
   (c) the place of residence or business of the trustee; and
   (d) the objects of the trust and the places where they are to be fulfilled.

(4) A settlor may, whether or not he is resident in the DIFC, expressly declare in the trust instrument that the laws of the DIFC shall be the governing law of the trust.

(5) A term of the trust expressly declaring that the laws of the DIFC shall govern the trust is valid, effective and conclusive regardless of any other circumstance.

13. Provision for change of governing law

(1) Where a term of a trust so provides, the governing law may be changed to or from the laws of the DIFC, in the manner prescribed by the terms of the trust, if:
   (a) in the case of a change to the laws of the DIFC, such change is recognised by the governing law previously in effect; or
   (b) in the case of a change from the laws of the DIFC, the new governing law would recognise the validity of the trust and all the trusts, powers and provisions of the trust remain enforceable, capable of being exercised and so taking effect.

(2) Where the governing law of the trust changes to DIFC Law, that trust shall be for all purposes a DIFC trust.

(3) A change in the governing law shall not affect the legality or validity of, or render any person liable for, anything done before the change.
14. Matters determined by governing law

(1) Subject to Article 14(2), all matters arising in regard to a trust which is for the time being governed by the laws of the DIFC or in regard to any disposition of property upon the trust thereof shall be determined in accordance with the laws of the DIFC.

(2) Subject to Articles 15, 16 and 17, Article 14(1) shall:

(a) not validate any disposition of property which is neither owned by the settlor nor is the subject of a power in that behalf vested in the settlor;

(b) not validate any trust or disposition of immovable property situated in a jurisdiction other than DIFC in which such trust or disposition is invalid according to the laws of such jurisdiction;

(c) not validate any testamentary trust or disposition which is invalid according to the laws of the testator’s last domicile;

(d) not affect the recognition of foreign laws in determining whether the settlor is or was the owner of the settled property or is or was the holder of a power to dispose of such property;

(e) not affect the recognition of the laws of its place of incorporation in relation to the capacity of a corporation; and

(f) not affect the recognition of foreign laws prescribing generally, without reference to the existence or terms of the trust, the formalities for the disposition of property.

15. Limitations in foreign law

Without limiting the generality of Article 14(1), no trust governed by the laws of the DIFC and no disposition of property to be held in trust that is valid under the laws of the DIFC is void, voidable, liable to be set aside or defective in any manner by reference to a foreign law; nor is the capacity of any settlor in relation to the trust or disposition to be questioned nor is the trustee or any beneficiary or any other person to be subjected to any liability or deprived of any right, by reason that:

(a) the laws of any foreign jurisdiction prohibit or do not recognise the concept of a trust;

or

(b) the trust or disposition voids or defeats any rights, claims or interest conferred by foreign law upon any person by reason of a personal relationship to the settlor or by way of heirship rights or contravenes any rule of foreign law or any foreign, judicial or administrative order, arbitration award or action intended to recognise, protect, enforce or give effect to any such rights, claims or interest.
16. Heirship rights

An heirship right conferred by foreign law in relation to the property of a living person shall not be recognised as:

(a) affecting the ownership of immovable property in the DIFC and movable property wherever it is situated for the purposes of Article 14(2)(a) and (b) or for any other purpose; or

(b) constituting an obligation or liability for any purpose.

17. Foreign Judgments

A foreign judgment shall not be recognised or enforced or give rise to any estoppels insofar as it is inconsistent with Articles 15 and 16.

18. Place of Administration

(1) Without precluding other means for establishing a close connection with the designated jurisdiction, terms of a trust designating the place of administration are valid and conclusive if:

(a) a trustee’s principal place of business is located in or a trustee is resident of the designated jurisdiction; or

(b) all or part of the administration occurs in the designated jurisdiction.

(2) A trustee is under a continuing duty to administer the trust at a place appropriate to its purposes, its administration, and the interests of the beneficiaries or in furtherance of its purposes and in accordance with the terms of the trust.

(3) Without precluding the right of the Court to order, approve, or disapprove a transfer in furtherance of the duty prescribed in Article 18(2), the trustee may transfer the trust’s place of administration to another jurisdiction outside the DIFC.

(4) In connection with a transfer of the trust’s place of administration, the trustee may transfer some or all of the trust property to a successor trustee designated in the terms of the trust.
PART 3: JUDICIAL AND NON JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS

19. Role of the Court in administration of trust

   (1) The Court may intervene in the administration of a trust to the extent its jurisdiction is invoked by an interested person or as provided by Law.

   (2) A trust is not subject to continuing judicial supervision unless so ordered by the Court.

   (3) A judicial proceeding involving a trust may relate to any matter involving the trust’s administration, including a request for instructions and an action to declare rights.

20. Jurisdiction of the Court

   The Court has jurisdiction where:

   (a) the trust is a DIFC trust;

   (b) a trustee of a foreign trust is resident in the DIFC;

   (c) any trust property of a foreign trust is situated in the DIFC but only in respect of property so situated; or

   (d) administration of any trust property of a foreign trust is carried out in the DIFC.

21. Application to and certain powers of the Court

   (1) A trustee may make an application to the Court for direction, opinion or advice concerning the manner in which he may or should act in connection with any matter concerning the trust and the Court may make such order, if any, as it thinks fit.

   (2) The Court may if it thinks fit:

       (a) make an order concerning:

           (i) the execution or the administration of any trust;

           (ii) the trustee of any trust, including an order relating to the exercise of any power, discretion or duty of the trustee, the appointment or removal of a trustee, the remuneration of a trustee, the submission of accounts, the conduct of the trustee and payments, whether payments into Court or otherwise;

           (iii) the vesting of trust property;

           (iv) a beneficiary or any person having a connection with the trust as the Court may determine; or

           (v) the appointment or removal of an enforcer in relation to any non-charitable purposes of the trust;

       (b) make a declaration as to the validity or the enforceability of a trust; or

       (c) rescind or vary any order or declaration made under this Law, or make any new or further order or declaration.
22. Payment of costs

The costs and expenses of and incidental to an application to the Court under this Law shall be paid out of the trust property or be borne and paid in such other manner or by such other person as the Court may order.
PART 4: CREATION, VALIDITY AND MODIFICATION OF A DIFC TRUST

23. Creation of a trust

(1) A trust may be created by:

(a) transfer of property to another person as trustee during the settlor’s lifetime or by will or other disposition taking effect upon the settlor’s death;

(b) the transfer of property from one trust to another;

(c) declaration by the beneficial owner of property that the legal owner holds identifiable property as trustee; or

(d) exercise of a power of appointment in favour of a trustee.

(2) A trust shall come into existence by an instrument in writing including a will or codicil.

24. Requirements for creation

(1) A trust is created if:

(a) the settlor has the capacity to create a trust;

(b) the settlor indicates an intention to create the trust;

(c) the trust either:

(i) has a definite beneficiary;

(ii) is a charitable trust, as provided for in Article 28; or

(iii) is a non-charitable purpose trust, as provided for in Article 29;

(d) the trustee holds or has vested in him or it property for the benefit of a beneficiary or for a purpose;

(e) the trustee has duties to perform; and

(f) the same person is not the sole trustee and sole beneficiary.

(2) A beneficiary is definite if the beneficiary can be ascertained now or in the future.

(3) A trust may have at the same time a definite beneficiary and a purpose.

25. Trust purposes

(1) A trust may only be created to the extent its purposes are sufficiently certain to allow the trust to be carried out, lawful and not contrary to public policy in the DIFC.

(2) A trust and its terms shall be for the benefit of its beneficiaries or in furtherance and support of its purposes.
26. Duration of a trust

A trust may continue indefinitely or terminate in accordance with this Law or with the terms of the trust.

27. Validity and invalidity of a trust

(1) Subject to Article 27(2) and (3), a trust shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

(2) A trust shall be invalid to the extent that:

   (a) it purports to do anything which is contrary to DIFC Law;

   (b) it is created for a purpose in relation to which there is no beneficiary, not being a charitable purpose, unless it complies with Article 29;

   (c) its creation was induced by fraud, duress, undue influence or misrepresentation;

   (d) the trust is immoral or contrary to public policy in the DIFC; or

   (e) the terms of the trust are so uncertain that its performance is rendered impossible.

(3) Where a trust is created for two or more purposes of which some are lawful and others are unlawful:

   (a) if those purposes cannot be separated the trust shall be invalid; or

   (b) where those purposes can be separated the Court may declare that the trust is valid as to the purposes which are lawful.

28. Charitable trust

(1) A charitable trust may be created for the relief of poverty, the advancement of education or religion, the promotion of health or art, the protection of the environment, or any other purposes which are beneficial to the general public.

(2) If the terms of a charitable trust do not indicate a particular charitable purpose or beneficiary or a means by which a particular charitable purpose or beneficiary may be selected, the Court may select one or more charitable purposes or beneficiaries in accordance with the settlor’s intention to the extent it can be ascertained.

(3) Subject to Article 28(4) if a particular charitable purpose becomes unlawful, impracticable, impossible to achieve, contrary to public policy in the DIFC, or obsolete in that, by reason of changed circumstances, it fails to achieve the purpose of the trust:

   (a) the trust does not fail, in whole or in part;

   (b) the trust property does not revert to the settlor or the settlor’s successors in interest; and

   (c) the Court may apply cy pres to vary or terminate the trust by directing that the trust property be applied or distributed, in whole or in part, in a manner consistent with the settlor’s intentions.
A provision in the terms of a charitable trust that would result in distribution of the trust property to a non-charitable beneficiary prevails over the power of the Court under Article 28(3) to apply cy pres to vary or terminate the trust only if, when the provision takes effect, the trust property is to revert to the settlor and the settlor is still living.

A charitable trust may be enforced by the settlor of the trust, is still living, maintaining a proceeding to enforce such trust or by the Court.

29. Non-charitable trusts or purpose trusts

(1) A trust shall not be invalid by reason of Article 27(2)(b) if the terms of the trust provide for the appointment of an enforcer in relation to its non-charitable purposes and for the appointment of a new enforcer at any time when there is none.

(2) Subject to Article 29(1), a trust may be declared by trust instrument for a non-charitable purpose, including the purpose of holding or investing in shares in a company or juridical person or any other assets constituting the trust property if:

(a) the purpose is possible and sufficiently certain to allow the trust to be carried out;

(b) the purpose is not contrary to public policy in the DIFC or unlawful under the laws of the DIFC; or

(c) the trust instrument specifies the event upon the happening of which the trust terminates and provides for the disposition of surplus assets of the trust upon its termination.

(3) It shall be the duty of an enforcer to enforce the trust in relation to its non-charitable purposes.

(4) The appointment of a person as enforcer of a trust in relation to its non-charitable purposes shall not have effect if he is also a trustee of the trust or has a conflict of interest.

(5) Except as permitted by this Law or expressly provided by the terms of the trust, or with the approval of the Court an enforcer shall not:

(a) directly or indirectly profit from his appointment;

(b) cause or permit any other person to profit directly or indirectly from such appointment; or

(c) on his own account enter into any transaction with the trustees or relating to the trust property which may result in profit to him or the trustee.

(6) Subject to Article 29(7), an enforcer may resign his office by notice in writing delivered to the trustee. Such resignation shall take effect upon delivery of notice.

(7) A resignation given in order to facilitate a breach of trust shall be of no effect.
(8) An enforcer shall cease to be an enforcer of the trust in relation to its non-charitable purposes immediately upon:

(a) the enforcer’s removal from office by the Court;

(b) the enforcer’s resignation becoming effective;

(c) the coming into effect of a provision in the terms of a trust under which the enforcer is removed from office or otherwise ceases to hold office; or

(d) the enforcer’s appointment as a trustee of the trust.

(9) A trustee of a trust for non-charitable purposes shall, at any time when there is no enforcer in relation to them, take such steps as may be necessary to secure the appointment of a new enforcer.

(10) Where the trustee of a trust for non-charitable purposes has reason to believe that the enforcer in relation to such purposes is unwilling or refuses to act, or is unfit to act or incapable of acting, he shall apply to the Court for the removal of the enforcer and the appointment of a replacement.

30. Variation and revocation of a trust

(1) A trust may expressly provide that:

(a) its terms are capable of variation; or

(b) the trust itself or a power exercisable under the trust is revocable either in whole or in part.

(2) Where a trust provides that the terms of the trust may be varied, such power to vary shall be without prejudice to the power vested in the Court by this Law for the variation of the terms of the trust.

(3) No variation of the terms of the trust or revocation of a trust or a power exercisable under a trust shall prejudice anything lawfully done by a trustee in relation to a trust prior to his receiving a notice of such variation or revocation.

(4) Subject to the terms of the trust, where a trust is revoked, either in whole or in part, the trustee shall hold the trust property affected by the revocation for the settlor absolutely or if the settlor is dead, for the settlor’s personal representative or estate.

(5) For the purposes of this Article, the “settlor” is the particular person who provided the property which is the subject of revocation.

(6) The Court may vary the terms of a trust:

(a) even if unambiguous, to conform the terms to the settlor’s intention if it is provided by clear and convincing evidence that both the settlor’s intent and the terms of the trust were affected by a mistake of fact or law, whether in expression or inducement;

(b) if, because of circumstances not anticipated by the settlor, modification will further the purpose of the trust; or

(c) if continuation of the trust on its existing terms would be impracticable or wasteful or impair the trust’s administration;
31. Failure or lapse of interest

(1) Subject to the terms of a trust and to any order of the Court, the trust property or interest under the trust shall be held by the trustee for the settlor absolutely or if the settlor is dead, for the settlor’s personal representatives or estate where:

(a) the interest in question lapses;

(b) the trust property is vested in a person otherwise than for his sole benefit but the trusts upon which he is to hold the property are not declared or communicated to him; or

(c) the trust terminates otherwise than in pursuance of Article 32(1)(d).

(2) For the purposes of this Article, the “settlor” is the particular person who provided the property affected by the failure or lapse.

32. Termination of a trust

(1) Without prejudice to the powers of the Court under this Law a trust terminates:

(a) if the trust is revoked or expires pursuant to its terms;

(b) if there is no beneficiary or person who can become a beneficiary in accordance with the terms of the trust or if no purpose of the trust remains to be achieved;

(c) if the purposes of the trust have become unlawful, or impossible to achieve; or

(d) notwithstanding the terms of the trust, upon consent of all the beneficiaries in existence who have been ascertained and none of whom is a minor or a person under a legal disability.

(2) The Court may terminate a trust:

(a) because of circumstances not anticipated by the settlor, if termination will further the purposes of the trust; or

(b) if the value of the trust property is insufficient to justify the cost of administration.

(3) An application to the Court under this Article may be made by a settlor, a trustee or a beneficiary as the case may be.
Distribution of property

(1) Without prejudice to the powers of the Court under Article 33(3), on the termination of the trust the trustee shall distribute the trust property to the persons entitled thereto within a reasonable time and in accordance with the terms of the trust.

(2) The trustee may retain sufficient assets or obtain satisfactory security to make reasonable provision for liabilities, whether existing, future, contingent or otherwise, before distributing the trust property under Article 33(1).

(3) The Court may, on the termination of a trust or at any time thereafter, upon an application made by a trustee or any beneficiary as the case may be:

(a) require the trustee to distribute the trust property;

(b) direct the trustee not to distribute the trust property; or

(c) make such other order as it thinks fit.
PART 5: THE BENEFICIARIES OF A DIFC TRUST

34. Beneficiaries of a trust

(1) A beneficiary shall be:

   (a) identifiable by name; or

   (b) ascertainable by reference to:

   (i) a class; or

   (ii) a relationship to some person whether or not living at the time of the creation of the trust or at the time which under the terms of the trust is the time by reference to which members of a class are to be determined.

(2) The terms of a trust may provide for the addition of a person as a beneficiary or the exclusion of a beneficiary from benefit.

(3) A settlor or a trustee of a trust may also be a beneficiary of a trust.

35. Disclaimer

(1) A beneficiary may disclaim his whole interest.

(2) A disclaimer made under Article 35(1) shall be in writing and shall be irrevocable.

(3) Subject to the terms of a trust, a beneficiary under a trust may disclaim part of his interest, whether or not he has received some benefit from his interest.

(4) A disclaimer made under Article 35(3) may, subject to the terms of the trust, be revocable and it shall be exercisable in the manner and under the circumstances so expressed.

36. Interest of beneficiary and dealings thereof

(1) The interest of a beneficiary shall constitute movable property.

(2) Subject to the terms of a trust, a beneficiary may, by instrument in writing, sell, charge, transfer or otherwise deal with his interest in any manner.
PART 6: PROTECTIVE TRUSTS AND CREDITORS’ CLAIMS

37. Protective Trusts

(1) The terms of a trust may make the interest of the beneficiary liable to termination.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of Article 37(1), the terms of a trust may make the interest of a beneficiary in the income or capital of the trust property subject to:

   (a) a restriction on alienation or disposal; or

   (b) a diminution or termination in the event of the beneficiary becoming bankrupt or any of his property becoming liable to sequestration for the benefit of his creditors.

(3) A trust under which the interest of a beneficiary is subject to restriction, diminution or termination under Article 37(2) is a protective trust.

(4) A provision in the terms of a trust requiring the interest of a beneficiary in trust property to be held upon a protective trust shall be construed as a requirement that the interest of the beneficiary be subject to restriction, diminution or termination as mentioned in Article 37(2).

38. Creditors claims in relation to a discretionary trust

(1) In the case of a discretionary trust, whether or not such trust contains a protective provision, a creditor of a beneficiary may not compel a distribution that is subject to the trustee’s discretion, even if:

   (a) the discretion is expressed in the form of a standard of distribution; or

   (b) the trustee has abused the discretion.

(2) To the extent a trustee has not complied with a standard of distribution or has abused a discretion:

   (a) a distribution may be ordered by the Court to satisfy a judgment or Court order against the beneficiary for support or maintenance of the beneficiary’s child, spouse or former spouse; and

   (b) the Court shall direct the trustee to pay to the child, spouse, or former spouse such amount as is equitable under the circumstances but not more than the amount the trustee would have been required to distribute to or for the benefit of the beneficiary had the trustee complied with the standard or not abused the discretion.
PART 7: OFFICE OF TRUSTEE

39. Accepting or declining trusteeship

(1) Except as otherwise provided in Article 39(3) a person designated as trustee accepts the trusteeship:

(a) by substantially complying with a method of acceptance provided in the terms of the trust; or

(b) if the terms of the trust do not provide a method or the method provided in the terms is not expressly made exclusive, by accepting delivery of the trust property, exercising powers or performing duties as trustee, or otherwise indicating acceptance of the trusteeship.

(2) A person designated as trustee who has not yet accepted the trusteeship may decline the trusteeship. A designated trustee who does not accept the trusteeship within a reasonable amount of time after knowing of the designation is deemed to have rejected the trusteeship.

(3) A person designated as a trustee, without accepting the trusteeship, may without liability for loss:

(a) act to preserve the trust property if, within a reasonable time after acting, he sends a written rejection of the trusteeship to the settlor or, if the settlor is dead or lacks capacity, to a named beneficiary;

(b) inspect or investigate trust property to determine potential liability under any other law or for any other purpose; or

(c) apply to the Court for directions or advice.

(4) A person who knowingly does any act or thing in relation to the trust property consistent with the status of a trustee of that property shall be deemed to have accepted appointment as a trustee, but he shall not be remunerated for acting in such capacity as provided in Article 44, unless the trustee appointed under the terms of the trust otherwise agrees.

40. Vacancy in trusteeship; appointment of a new trustee

(1) A vacancy in a trusteeship occurs if:

(a) a person designated as trustee rejects the trusteeship;

(b) a person designated as trustee cannot be identified or does not exist;

(c) a trustee resigns;

(d) a trustee is removed;

(e) a trustee dies; or

(f) a guardian is appointed for an individual serving as trustee.

(2) Where the terms of a trust contain no provision for the appointment of a new trustee, the trustee for the time being may appoint a new trustee or failing that the Court may appoint a new trustee.
(3) Subject to the terms of the trust, a trustee appointed under this Article shall have the same powers, discretions and duties and may act as if he had been originally appointed a trustee.

(4) A trustee having power to appoint a new trustee who fails to exercise such power may be removed from office by the Court and the Court may appoint a new trustee.

(5) If one or more co-trustees remain in office, a vacancy in a trusteeship need not be filled.

(6) A vacancy in trusteeship shall be filled if the trust has no remaining trustee.

(7) Where there is no trustee a trust shall not fail on that account.

41. Resignation of trustee

(1) Subject to the terms of the trust, a trustee may resign his office:
   (a) by giving at least 30 days notice in writing to the beneficiaries, the settlor, if living, and all his co-trustees. Such resignation shall take effect termination of such 30 day notice period or such earlier date as shall be agreed between the trustee resigning and the settlor, if living, and his co-trustees;
   (b) with the approval of the Court; or
   (c) otherwise in accordance with the terms of the trust.

(2) A resignation given in order to facilitate a breach of trust shall have no effect.

42. Removal of trustee by Court or under the terms of a trust

(1) The settlor, an enforcer, a co-trustee, or a beneficiary may request the Court to remove a trustee, or a trustee may be removed by the Court on its own initiative.

(2) The Court may remove a trustee if:
   (a) the trustee has committed a breach of trust;
   (b) lack of cooperation among co-trustees substantially impairs the administration of the trust;
   (c) because of unfitness, unwillingness, or persistent failure of the trustee to administer the trust, the Court determines that removal of the trustee best serves the interests of the beneficiaries; or
